

2023 MACE AND DEE SMITH MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship will be awarded annually to graduating seniors planning to pursue a post-secondary education program. A post-secondary program may consist of a one or two year vocational-technical program or a two or four year college or professional program.

Applicants need to complete the attached application and return to Mrs. Weber by March 8, 2023.

Renewable and non-renewable scholarships will be awarded again this year. The number and amount will be determined by the selection committee. The check will be sent to the recipient, payable to the student and the college. Should circumstances develop whereby the recipient does not attend college, the check should be returned to the Wood & Huston Bank in Marshall, Missouri. The scholarship award may be used for typical college expenses such as tuition, fees, and books. It may not be used for living expenses unless a student is living in college owned housing. The renewable scholarship(s) will be renewable for up to three additional years in the amount of $1,000.00 each year. In order to qualify for a renewal, a recipient must be consecutively enrolled as a full time student (12 semester credit hours or more each semester), maintain a grade point average (GPA) of 2.75 or more on a 4.00 scale and maintain a good citizenship record.
